Call for Papers

The Africa Business Program at the Kiebach Center for International Business Studies, Whitman School of Management at Syracuse University, in partnership with Université Laval, Makerere University Business School, Université Paris-Dauphine and State University of New York at Oswego, is organizing the Third Annual Conference on "Business and Entrepreneurship in Africa."

The conference will be held at Université Laval, Quebec City, on May 17-19, 2012. It will serve as a forum to present the current work on business and entrepreneurship in Africa by researchers from around the world. Authors are invited to submit original, unpublished manuscripts that address the main theme of the conference or any other aspect of the business and entrepreneurial processes, such as start-up, finance, growth, management and developmental entrepreneurship. Manuscripts may focus solely on one country, on comparisons between countries or cross-border entrepreneurship or businesses.

Please submit your abstract or session proposal no later than December 31, 2011. Full papers or extended drafts are due on April 1, 2012. Papers in English or French will be considered for presentation.

Possible areas of study include, but are not limited to:

- Venture capital and financing entrepreneurship
- Financial markets, Bond, and Stock market
- Foreign Direct Investment
- Microenterprises & microfinance
- The Diaspora
- Women and Entrepreneurship
- Business Incubators
- Reforms and Entrepreneurship
- Public Policy Options
- Financing

Selected papers will be included in the conference proceedings as well as on the Africa Business Program website. For more information, please visit the Africa Business Program website at www.africabusinessprogram.com.
