2012 Panasci Business Plan Competition

Tentative Name of Your Business:

Each Entrant listed in the online form, competing in the 2011 Panasci Business Plan Competition, agrees to the following conditions. These conditions apply to all phases of the competition, including the Overview, Business Plan, and Presentation phases.

Originality. Ideas and concepts presented in this team’s entry, and the entry itself, are the original work of the Entrants, and that each Entrant is not under any agreement or restrictions which prohibit or restrict his/her ability to disclose or submit such ideas or concepts during the Competition activities.

Compliance with Competition Rules. Each entering team member must review the rules and guidelines of the Panasci Business Plan Competition (see “Rules” section of the website) and certifies that this entry and all members of the team are in compliance with the competition guidelines.

Waivers and Releases. Each Entrant understands that Syracuse University and any Competition organizers, judges, or other related personnel are volunteers and are under no obligation to render any advice or service to any contestant competing in the Competition. The views expressed by judges, organizers, sponsors, or other persons related to the Competition are their own, and not those of Syracuse University or any other person or entity.

All members of entrant teams also understands and agrees that although Competition organizers will make the best efforts regarding confidentiality of the ideas and plans submitted by entering teams, the legal protection of the ideas and plans is the sole responsibility of the members of the entrant team. In consideration of the time, expertise, and other resources provide by the Competition organizers, judges, and other related persons, each Entrant hereby voluntarily releases all Competition organizers, judges, and personnel from any further liabilities, responsibilities, and accountabilities relating to or arising from this competition.
